

Adult Programs – Tammy Richard

Adult learn to ski had 8 participants register and skied 4 times before Christmas and 4 times after Christmas. The feedback from one participant was that it was great!

Adult training group unfortunately only had two people register this year for skiing and only one person skied consistently with coach Lowell. Plans are underway to revitalize this program.